FOREIGN PROTESTS LARGELY OVERCOME

Radical Changes Made in Tariff Bill to Reach Agreement

PLAN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT

Senate Finance Committee Seeks to Surmount Objections of Foreign Governments to Features of Measure

Washington, June 24.—Radical changes in the income tax plan of the Underwood tariff bill, and alteration of the administrative features of the measure, to overcome most of the objections raised by the Democratic members of the Senate Finance committee.

The Income Tax

The income tax, under the new plan, would apply to individual incomes over $3,000; but would make important exemptions for individuals, municipalities, civic bodies and mutual insurance companies. Changes in the administrative sections include a new provision giving the President authority to increase tariff duties against certain foreign articles coming from countries that discriminate against the United States.

The proposed five per cent concession in tariff on goods brought in American ships; the anti-dumping clause, and the provision giving United States authorities "inquisitorial powers" to examine books of foreign manufacturers when the valuation of goods is in dispute, were stricken out. These provisions brought protest from many foreign nations.

Democrats of the committee made it clear today that some furthef changes might be made in the income tax, and administrative sections before they were reported to the Senate caucus, but the revised sections as made public today are expected to stand with but little alteration until the caucus reaches them.

Wool and Sugar

Senate Democrats in caucus on the bill spent the entire day on wool and sugar. Just before adjournment tonight Chairman Simmons, of the Finance committee, secured agreement to vote upon both not later than four o'clock tomorrow. No amendment to the free wool provision has been offered, but the majority Senators will have an opportunity to express their opinions on two sugar amendments.

Senator Shafroth offered to fix the rate at the end of three years at about one-half cent a pound, instead of the free list provision now in the bill. Senator Thornton offered the second amendment to provide that the rates remain as they are in the Payne-Aldrich act.

It was regarded as probable tonight that the anti-free sugar men would get together tomorrow before the vote is taken to decide to concentrate their support behind one amendment if the other is beaten. Leaders of the majority were confident that despite the oratory against free sugar it would be retained in the bill, and that only the two Louisiana Senators would be found opposed to it when the measure reaches the Senate.

Under the proposed new form of the income tax, an additional exception of $1,000 would be allowed to married men or married women with dependent wives or husbands, not taxable under this law, and $500 would be added for each dependent child living with and dependent upon the taxable parent. In case of both parties being taxable, however, no exemption for children would apply.

Tax Exemptions

Other important changes in the plan include the exemption from taxation of that portion of the premiums collected by the Mutual Life or Mutual Marine Insurance companies, which may be returned to policyholders in the form of dividends. The taxation of this portion of their income had been bitterly opposed by the insurance companies. The Underwood bill had exempted only Mutual Fire insurance companies on this basis.

Chambers of commerce, civic bodies and cities, counties and States are added to the class of organizations whose incomes will not be taxable.

To secure the payment of tax upon "coupons, checks or bills of exchange" collected for foreign residents, a provision was added requiring ing all firms collecting such funds to secure a license from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, so the amount of their collections might at any time be inquired into. The revision of the administrative features eliminates many of the reforms proposed in the Underwood bill as it passed the House, the Senate committee proposes an amendment, however, providing for a point committee to investigate the revenue administration laws, with the view to "simplifying, harmonizing, revising and codifying" them.

This committee would consist of three Senators to be appointed by the Vice President, and four members of the Ways and Means committee to be appointed by the Speaker, and their recommendations would be required to be reported not later than February 1st, 1914. An appropriation of $15,000 for the investigation is recommended.

Specified Rates

The specified articles and rates to which the authority of the President to make retaliatory increases in duties would not extend as follows:

"Fish, all kinds, one cent per pound; coffee, three cents per pound; tea, 10 cents per pound."

On the following articles, one and one-fourth times the rate specified in the bill:

"Earthenware, stone and chinaware, expressed oils, lemons, cheese, wines of all kinds, malt liquors, knitted goods, silk dresses and silk goods, leather gloves, laces and embroideries, of whatever material composed, and articles made wholly or in part of the same; toys, jewelry and precious, semi-precious and imitation precious stones, suitable for use in the manufacture of jewelry."

On the following, in addition to the regular duties as provided in the bill, the duties specified below:

"Sugars, etc., testing by the polariscope not above 75 degrees, fifteen-hundredths per cent per pound, and for every additional degree by the polariscope test an additional one-hundredth per cent per pound; molasses, two cents per gallon.

"On wool of the sheep, hair of the Angora goat, and Alpaca and other like animals, and all wools and hair on the skins of such animals and all wool wastes, 15 per cent ad valorem."

The President could revoke his proclamation whenever satisfied that the discriminations had ceased to exist.

In striking out provisions against which foreign nations protested the Senate Democrats acted upon the belief that the proposed requirements were "unnecessarily inquisitive," and would hamper importation and possibly provoke retaliation.

Articles manufactured by child labor would be excluded, together with convict labor goods, through an amendment by Senator Borah, which the Finance committee adopted. It would exclude all foreign goods except immediate products of agriculture, forests and fisheries, manufactured wholly or in part by convict labor or by children under 14 years of age.

Circuit courts of appeal would be given concurrent jurisdiction with the United States Court of Customs Appeals, through another provision put in by the Senate committee in all cases involving more than $100.

OLD BATTLE FLAGS BARRED AT REUNION

Tattered Ensigns Will Have No Place at Gettysburg

A NECESSARY PRECAUTION

Stars and Stripes Will Float Over Encampment Veterans of the Blue and Gray—Fiftieth Anniversary of Great Battle

Philadelphia, June 24.—Word has gone out to veterans of both armies all over the country not to bring their tattered battle flags to Gettysburg next week for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle, for they cannot be flown to the breeze in the encampment. Every precaution will be taken to prevent the stirring up of animosities and feeling on the part of the old soldiers, and this is one of the precautions considered necessary. The only flag which will be allowed in the encampment will be the stars and stripes.

Boy scouts will be used as couriers and general aides to the veterans at the encampment. They will be stationed at the railroad terminals to aid the veterans in handling their luggage and give information.

Reports received at Grand Army headquarters, show that approximately 6,800 veterans from this city will attend. They will make nearly one-third of the total delegation from Pennsylvania which will number about 23,000.

Ample Accommodations

Gettysburg, Pa., June 24.—"There will be ample accommodations and plenty of rations for all veterans who come to Gettysburg for the battle anniversary celebration next week, even though the number exceed by 10,000 the original estimate," was the statement made by officers of the regular army at camp headquarters yesterday.

"Here we have over 5,000 tents, nearly all of which are now in place," said one officer. "Everyone is supposed to be large enough to receive eleven men. We have apportioned only eight to each tent. By making it nine you have additional accommodations for 5,000 men, and you can increase this by another 5,000 without crowding anyone. It is true that we based our supplies on an estimate of 40,000 veterans, but the amount is elastic and can be made to serve for many others. For instance, we allow a pound of bread for each man a day. Few men eat this much, or even half thi smuch. Other supplies are based on the same liberal plan, and every veteran who comes here will get shelter and all the food he needs."

The camp will be fully completed two days ahead of scheduled time, according to Major Normoyle, in command. Provisions which are not perishable will all be distributed to the kitchens not later than next Saturday, and under a scheme outlined by Captain McCaskey, who, with Major Grove, is assisting Major Normoyle, the arrival of every train load of veterans will be followed by the supply of immediate mess requirements.

A remarkable system for keeping track of the veterans from every State has been devised with the result that any delay when they reach camp is practically an impossibility.

Almost every day brings news of larger allotments of veterans from the various States. The latest request for more space comes from Virginia, which reports that instead of 1,800 it will send at least 2,500.

BLEASE DEFIES WAR DEPARTMENT

Says He Will Act Regardless of the Federal Authorities

ASSISTANCE IS WITHDRAWN

Adjutant General of South Carolina Receives Telegram From Washington Official Withdrawing Federal Support.

Columbia, S. C., June 24.—Adjutant General W. W. Moore, of South Carolina, today received a telegram from Gen. A. L. Mills, chief of the division of militia affairs, U. S. A., Washington, informing him that no further Federal assistance, either in personnel or equipment, will be afforded the organized militia of this State because of the attitude of Governor Cole L. Blease toward the enforcement of Federal militia law, as expressed in letters recently written by the State executive to Adjutant General Moore and the Secretary of War.

The telegram from Gen. Mills to the adjutant general was as follows:

"In accordance with action of War Department this date, taken in consequence of attitude of Governor of your State toward enforcement of Federal militia law as expressed in his letters of May 5 and 27 to you, and of June 11 to Secretary of War, no further Federal assistance, either in personnel or equipment will be afforded the organized militia of your State, nor will further expenditure of Federal funds in hands of disbursing officer be authorized by Secretary of War, except to cover such obligations as may have been already incurred and approved by Secretary of War. Requisition for property now on hand in militia division is disapproved, and no further resuisiton will be honored. This information is telegraphed to you in connection with plans for encampment of South Carolina organized militia this Summer in order that you may be guided by such telegrams and act accordingly. Disbursing officer has been informed of action by War Department.

(Signed) "MILLS,
"Chief Division Militia Affairs."

When shown the statement from General Mills, Governor Blease said:

"This is what I have been wanting for some time. I fought the Dick law in the Senate. I believed the State was unwise in adopting it and I believe the wisdom of my fight has been shown. I believe this will certainly open the eyes of the Legislature, and that at their next session they will repeal the Dick law. When that shall have been done I will have won a struggle I have been making for several years and truly I shall sing 'Hallelujah! Praise the Lord, South Carolina is once again free from the domination of 'yankee uniforms' and once more in control of her own State militia.'"

In his letter to Secretary of War Garrison, the Governor says:

"I fought this Dick law when I was in the Senate and I have seen the wisdom of my opposition since and nothing gives me more pleasure than to see South Carolina relieved from its iniquitous provisions."

Washington, June 24.—War Department officials said today that the defiant attitude of Governor Blease left no alternative but to withdraw Federal support from the South Carolina militia. They declared that he not only ignored the standards of efficiency in the State militia demanded by the Federal authorities under the Dick law as a condition of Federal support, but had announced that as commander-in-chief of the State volunteer forces he would do what he pleased regardless of Federal authorities.

A. & N. C. DIRECTORS MEET.

Declare Semi-annual Dividend of One and One-fourth Per Cent.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, N. C., June 24.—The full board of directors for the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Co., was present when President L. P. Tapp called the meeting to order today. The purpose of the meeting was to declare a semi-annual dividend.

Secretary-Treasurer Broadhurst made a report showing that since the lease to the Norfolk Southern, about $4,000 of unclaimed dividends had been expended in payment of court costs and legal fees incurred in litigation growing out of the lease. It may be well to state that during the four years of the present administration expenditures have been kept within the amount allowed for administrative expense by the lease.

The board of directors, believing that the amount of dividends used, about $4,000, should be in hand to meet the uncalled for dividends, decided to put this amount in new North Carolina bonds. To provide this amount the dividend was cut from 1 1-2 per cent, to 1 1-4 per cent, to be payable July 1st, 1913, at the office of Capt. D. J. Broadhurst, secretary and treasurer, at Goldsboro.

Several controverted points having arisen between the directors and the Norfolk Southern concerning stiplations in the lease, the board instructed the attorney and committee on lease violations to prepare and submit the directors' contentions respecting same. This is to be done preparatory to the institution of a friendly suit agreed upon at a conference six months ago between Governor Kitchin and representatives of the Norfolk Southern.

No other business coming before the board, adjourument was made. The next meeting of the board of directors was fixed for August 7th, the date when the annual stockholders' meeting is held.

CHANGES IN STORE FOR CURRENCY BILL

Democrats and Republicans to Discuss Measure Again With Wilson

CRITICISMS OF THE BILL

Bill Will Reach Both Houses in Practically Same Form As It Was Recently Made Public By Glass

Washington, June 24.—The administration currency bill is to undergo some important changes before it is pushed for action in either House or Senate, although the measure will be introduced in both House virtually in the same form in which it was recently made public by Representative Glass.

The provision for the retirement of National bank notes, and the refunding of two per cent government bonds with a three per cent issue, is to be put back into the measure later, it is understood, with the consent of the administration. This provision was in the bill before the final conferences at the White House; but was taken out because of the opposition of Secretary Bryan and others.

Criticisms.

Much of the criticism against the measure among members of both houses, since its terms became public, has been directed at the proposal to create a new kind of paper currency without withdrawing the National bank notes, or providing against a depreciation in value on the two per cent government bonds that secure these notes. It is said now that this objection has become so strong as to convince administration leaders the provision must be restored if the bill is to pass.

Will Get Opinions

Chairman Glass and Democratic members of the House Currency committee, at a conference today, agreed to undertake individually to "sound out" impartial bankers, business men, experts and students of financial affairs, to ascertain how the provisions of the Glass bill are regarded by that part of the public which will be most directly affected by monetary changes. Members of the Senate committee on banking and currency, Democrats and Republicans, will meet President Wilson at the White House tomorrow night for their first discussion of the new measure with him.

Representative Lindburgh, of Minnesota, Progressive member of the House Banking and Currency committee, and originator of the "money trust" investigation, criticised the new bill in a statement today.

"If enacted in its present form," he said, "the bill would deal with the banking interests only. It has no direct relation to the people except in the creation of a National reserve board."

FIENDISH CRUELTY

Inhuman Father Beats Daughter With Butt of Buggy Whip

Augusta, Ga., June 24.—Charges that he fastened a chain around the neck of his 15-year-old daughter, suspended her by the chain from a meat hook in his butcher shop, and then beat her with the butt end of a buggy whip until the blood flowed freely from wounds on her shoulders and body, were made against J. J. Johnson, who was arraigned in Recorder's court this morning.

There are three specific charges against Johnson—disorderly conduct, cruelty to a child, and assault with intent to murder. On motion of the defendant's attorney the hearing was continued until Friday.

Policeman R. M. Moore, who arrested Johnson, states that he was called to the Johnson meat market last night by a telephone message from neighbors who heard the girl's screams. The policeman stated that when he reached the shop he found Johnson's daughter, Nellie, hanging from a meat hook, suspended by a chain, which had been wrapped twice around her neck and locked. Moore said that the girl's arms, neck and portions of her body showed evidences of severe beating, and that blood was flowing from wounds, apparently caused by the butt end of a buggy whip, which the father held in his hand. The chain had made a gash in the girl's neck, and she was exhausted when the policeman released her from the chain.

Moore arrested Johnson who was refused bail by the authorities and locked in the jail. Johnson told the authorities he had whipped her because he could not control her.

OUTLINES

The administration currency bill will undergo important changes before it is pushed for action in either House or Senate, according to Washington dispatches.

As a precaution to avoid stirring up animosities on the part of the old soldiers, no tattered battle flags will be displayed at the Gettysburg celebration next week.

Tentative changes in the Underwood tariff bill have been agreed upon by Democrats of the Senate Finance committee to overcome the objections to the measure presented by foreign governments.

Because of the defiant attitude of Governor Blease toward Federal authorities, the Adjutant General of South Carolina has received advice from Washington officials that further Federal assistance to the militia of that State will not be granted.

New York markets: Money on call, steady, 1 3-4 to 2 per cent; ruling rate 2; closing bid 1 3-4; offered at 2. Flour steady. Wheat firm. Corn firm. Rosin steady. Turpentine steady. Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 12.30; middling gulf 12.55; Sales, none.

Strike Threatened on the Imperator.

Hoboken N. J., June 24.—A thousand members of the crew of the giant liner, Imperator, now in port, at a mass meeting denounced working conditions on the vessel. Protests were made that the "crew is treated like pigs," poorly fed, and overworked. The commander will be forced to act or face threats of a strike and probably delay of the Imperator's start on the return voyage.

GOLDSBORO WOMEN HURT

Automobile Turned Turtle When Lightning Caused Chauffeur to Lose Control of Machine—Six Ladies Injured

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., June 24.—Frightened by a bolt of lightning, a negro chauffeur lost control of a touring car he was driving late yesterday afternoon, the result being that six of Goldsboro's leading society women are suffering from serious injuries received when the car turned turtle, pinning them beneath the machine. Those injured were Mesdames Jno. Borden, Robt. Kornegay, Dr. Robt. Miller, Misses Elizabeth, Mary and Roena Borden.

The party was returning from a drive in the country and as they neared the city they were soon in the midst of a severe electrical and rain storm that suddenly burst upon the city, and as the flashes of lightning burst from different points simultaneously the frightened women in the car urged the negro chauffeur to speed the car, which he did.

At this juncture, followed by a blinding flash from a bolt of lightning, the negro, who had the young son of Mrs. Arnold Borden sitting in his lap, lost control of the steering wheel and the hugh machine crashed into the stone curbing on John street, in the southern part of the city, completely turning turtle and pinning the entire party beneath.

As the machine turned over, the young Borden lad rose from the lap of the negro chauffeur and leaped clear of the machine landing several feet away uninjured, and seeing that help from him towards rescuing those pinned under the car would be impossible, swiftly made his way to the home of a nearby neighbor where he 'phoned for medical aid which was hurriedly rushed to the scene.

Miss Annie Borden was also a passenger in the car and was the only woman passenger who escaped uuinjured, though she was rendered unconscious when the crash came.

Those seriously injured were Mrs. Dr. Miller and Mrs. Robt. Kornegay, who, it was thought last night, would not survive, but today they are resting well and are considered out of danger, their injuries not being as serious as the physicians pronounced them when their wounds were first examined.

Miss Mary Borden is suffering with a broken jawbone and several body bruises, while Miss Elizabeth escaped with only a few bruises. It was a miracle that all were not crushed to death.

The accident, coming as it did directly after a blinding flash of lightning, the wild rumor spread throughout the city that the automobile had been demolished by lightning, and fortunately hundreds of persons were soon hurrying to the scene, in spite of the heavy downpour of rain, and soon those pinned under the machine were rescued and hurried to the hospital with broken ankles, jawbones, ribs, while the skin of the left side of Mrs. Robt. Kornegay was literally peeled away, dirt and grit being ground into the raw flesh.

No blame for the accident is attached to the negro chauffeur, who claims that but for the fact that young Borden was sitting in his lap at the time the accident would never have happened; that as the severe flash of lightning came blinding the lad he grabbed him around the neck causing him to lose his grip upon the steering wheel. The negro escaped with only a few slight bruises.

The car belonged to Mr. John L. Borden and was only slightly damaged.

A few minutes after the accident a bolt of lightning struck the residence of Mr. E. H. Waters, completely demolishing the left side of the building, but fortunately did not set it on fire.

Reports are coming in from all over the county of serious damage to crops by last night's storm, as well as great damage wrought by the lightning.

ST. JOHN'S DAY AT OXFORD

Attendance Records Broken by Huge Crowd Yesterday at Annual Celebration of the Masons. Interesting Programme.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Oxford, N. C., June 24.—The celebration of St. John's Day at the Oxford Orphanage today was the biggest in the history of the institution, it being conservatively estimated that 14,000 people were in attendance.

The crowds began to pour in yesterday afternoon, and not until noon today did the influx appreciably decrease. People came by all means and manner of conveyances, on foot, horseback, by buggy, automobiles and rail. Some six or eight excursions from Goldsboro, Selma, Raleigh, Chapel Hill, Burlington and Greensboro over the Southern, and from Weldon, Louisburg, Youngsville, Franklinton, Dunn and Durham over the Seaboard, emptied their human freight in here by the thousands until the crowd reached proportions the like of which the old men of the town have never before seen.

It is estimated that a third of the white people of Granville county attended and probably so, for the crops are in the best condition that they have been at this season in many, many years.

More than 400 Masons attended the session of the Grand Lodge held at the Orphanage just immediately preceding the exercises of the day, this being the largest attendance for several years.

As usual, the occasion was an irresistible temptation for the elements to give the crowd an annual drenching, for not in the memory of many here has this occasion come and gone without rain. However, fickle fortune dealt more gently with the people today than she frequently does. The exercises were of their accustomed high order. Grand Master F. M. Winchester, of Charlotte, acted as master of ceremonies. The address of welcome was delivered by Jno. W. Hester, a young attorney of the town, in a well conceived and happily expressed speech of 10 minutes length. Prof. M. C. S. Noble recently made Dean of the School of Education of the University of North Carolina, delivered the principal address, it being interesting and entertaining, timely and instructive and presented in a-la-Noble fashion which, to those familiar with his inimitable ways means, just a little more than can be fittingly expressed in plain English.

Following his address, the members of Grand Lodge were given dinner by the Orphanage, and the exercises of the day were closed by a concert given by the children of the institution.

All in all, the occasion was a distinct success and Mr. R. L. Brown, superintendent of the institution, and his corps of faithful co-workers, are to be congratulated.

TOBACCO WAREHOUSE BURNED

Struck by Lightning or Fired by Incendiaries at LaGrange

(Special Star Telegram.)

Kinston, N. C., June 24.—A large tobacco warehouse at LaGrange, the property of Mrs. O. C. Wilkerson, was destroyed by fire last night, the frame building burning so rapidly that it was consumed in 20 minutes. It is believed the blaze was the work of incendiaries, although there is a possibility that the warehouse was struck by lightning. It had been leased by the firm of Chambers & Worley for the season. The loss is $7,000, with $4,500 insurance.

WILSON UPHOLDS ATTORNEY GENERAL

Accepts Resignation of the California District Attorney

CAUSES OF THE CONTROVERSY

President Characterizes McNab's Resignation as "An Inexcusable Intimation of Injustice and Wrongdoing."

Washington, June 24.—President Wilson tonight telegraphed United States District Attorney McNab, of San Francisco acceptance of the latter's resignation, the form of which the President characterized as "an inexcusable intimation of injustice and wrongdoing" on the part of Attorney General McReynolds. In a letter to the attorney general, the President exonerated him from blame and adopted Mr. McReynolds' suggestion that the Caminetti-Diggs and the Western Fuel Company cases be prosecuted immediately by special counsel for the government.

White House officials announced that the President would confer with the Attorney General tomorrow about the appointment of special prosecutors and that the President had in mind Francis J. Heney, Progressive Republican, who prosecuted the San Francisco graft trials; Matt J. Sullivan, Democrat, who assisted Mr. Heney, in the Ruef trial, and Thomas Hayden, Democrat, a former assistant city attorney in San Francisco. It was said that at least two of these three men and possibly all, would be selected to take charge not only of the Caminetti-Diggs white slave cases, but the Western Fuel Company cases.

Developments were rapid during the day in the situation, which was precipitated by telegrams of Mr. McNab on Saturday to the President and the Attorney General, accusing the latter of yielding to "rich and powerful influences," in ordering postponement of these cases, the father of one of the defendants being Antony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration. The subject absorbed the cabinet meeting today, and tonight the President came to his office to make public the full correspondence.

First the President telegraphed Mr. McNab as follows:

"Washington, D. C., June 24, 1913.
"John L. McNab, Esq., San Francisco, California.

"I greatly regret that you should have acted so hastily and under so complete misapprehension of the actual circumstances, but since you have chosen such a course and have given your resignation the form of an inexcusable intimation of injustice and wrongdoing on the part of your superior, I release you without hesitation, and accept your resignation, to take effect at once.

"WOODROW WILSON."

Attorney General McReynolds' statement that he ordered a postponement of the cases as an ordinary procedure in criminal trials, without anticipating that "any fair-minded man" would attribute a "malign motive" to him, was acknowledged by the President in his letter:

"June 24, 1913.

"My Dear Mr. Attorney General:

"Allow me to acknowledge with sincere appreciation your letter of today, giving me a full account of the way in which the Department of Justice has dealt with the Diggs-Caminetti and the Western Field Company cases, pending in California, and transmitting the documents connected with the two cases necessary for their elucidation.

"I am entirely satisfied that the course you took in both cases was prompted by sound and impartial judgment and a clear insistence for what was fair and right.

"I approve your course very heartily, and without hesitation. But I agree with you that what we may think of what has been done does not relieve us of the obligation to press these cases with the utmost diligence and energy.

"I approve very heartily of your suggestion that, in the circumstances, special counsel be employed—the best that we can obtain.

"I will be very glad to confer with you about the selection. I hope that you will do this without delay. I am very glad, indeed, that you are giving your personal attention to the immediate and diligent prosecution of the cases which I agree with you in regarding as of serious importance from every point of view.

"Sincerely yours,
"WOODROW WILSON."

Responding to instructions from the Attorney General for a detailed report of the Diggs-Caminetti cases, and to take no affirmative action until further advised by the Department of Justice, the Attorney general said United States Attorney McNab sent a report, received on May 27. In this report, he added, McNab "details a version of the acts with his inferences therefrom, and expresses the opinion that the case was aggravated and should be vigorously prosecuted; also that there might be attempts to interfere with the due course of justice by improper influences.

On the day the report was received the Attorney General telegraphed McNab as follows:

"I think the proper course is for you to set the cases and proceed with them as you have planned, and you are so directed."

Continuing, the Attorney General said:

"I have no occasion to give the matter any further special consideration for some three weeks—June 18—when Secretary Wilson telephoned to me and told me of the embarrassment in which he was placed by the request from the elder Caminetti, father of one of the defendants, for leave of absence in order to attend the trial of his son, the elder Caminetti, as you know, is the

CONFISCATORY RATES.

Justice Hughes' Opinion on the Railroad Cases.

Washington, June 24.—Nothing short of actual book accounts of railroad receipts and expenditures in intra-State business will be accepted by the Supreme Court of the United States as a basis of annulling State rates as confiscatory, according to the written opinion of Justice Hughes in the Arkansas rate cases, complete today. Justice Hughes announced the mere decision of the court that the freight and two-cent passenger rates in that State were not confiscatory on the court's last decision day, June 16, and has been engaged in writing the opinion in the cases snce that day.

He pointed out in the opinion that the railroads, in attacking the rates, failed to sustain their case because of too general methods employed in separating intra-State operations from inter-State. The value of the railroad property, he said, for reasons set forth in the Minnesota cases, was improperly divided between iitra-State and inter-State business on a gross revenue basis. He also criticised the lower court's conclusion that intra-State freight traffic cost 210 per cent. more on the Iron Mountain road, and 250 per cent. more on the St. Louis Southwestern, than inter-State traffic, and the intra-State passenger sesvice on the Iron Mountain cost 10 per cent. more than the inter-State.

MRS. MARIAH DOUGLAS DEAD

Passed Away Last Night Visiting Relatives on Masonboro

A telephone message to relatives last night conveyed the sad news of the death of Mrs. Mariah Douglas, an aunt of Mr. John W. Capps, of this city, with whom she lived at No. 514 Castle street, her death having occurred suddenly at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. Capps' father, Mr. F. D. Capps, on Masonboro Sound, where she had been visiting with Mrs. Capps for several days. Heart disease, with which she had been troubled for some time, is thought to have been the cause of her death.

Mrs. Douglas was 65 years old and a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Sixth and Queen streets, to which she was always faithful and devoted. She is survived of the immediate family only by a daughter, Mrs. Maggie Burris, of Elizabeth City. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

LIQUOR CASES YESTERDAY.

Justice Harriss Sends Two More Cases to Recorder's Court.

Joe Barnes and Ben Davis, both colored, were before Justice Harriss yesterday afternoon on the charge of selling intoxicating liquors. They were each bound over to Recorder's court, Barnes being required to give a $250 bond and Davis a bond of $100. The alleged sale took place on the 27th of May when Barnes is said to have passed over a quart of liquor to Ben Davis, a hack driver, who in turn delivered it to another person receiving for it the sum of $1.50. The warrants were sworn out by Mr. H. Mack Godwin, a special officer for the city. The case against Stacy McNeill, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law, comes up today.

BUTTER AND CHEESE

Big Purchase by Cold Storage Department of Independent Ice Company

An order for approximately $15,000 worth of Elgin creamery butter and Wisconsin creamery cheese was placed yesterday by the cold storage department of the Independent Ice Company, one of Wilmington's newest but most important enterprises. The purchase was made through the cold storage department committee of the company of which ex-Mayor Wm. E. Springer is chairman, and it consisted of 1,000 tubs of the fancy Elgin creamery butter and 1,000 boxes of fancy cheese. Wilmington brokers handled the purchase and the order is for immediate delivery. Heretofore this storage for Wilmington jobbers and retailers has been carried in Chicago, New York and elsewhere, but with the splendid storage here, this will no longer be necessary and wants of the local and State merchants will be supplied here much more economically and conveniently.

Another Fire in Hay

The fire department at 7:20 o'clock last night received another call from box 41 on account of a fire in the large quantity of hay stored in part of the old Custom House property on the wharf in which a fire of rather serious consequences occurred about the same hour some two weeks ago. The firemen are of the opinion that the blaze had not smouldered and broken out afresh but rather that another fire started from spontaneous combustion among the bales after being drenched with water and the warehouse closed for some days. The damage last night was trifling but the blaze was troublesome for the firemen for about an hour.

WITH THE MOVIES

Five big films, including a special two-reel release Selig, is the extraordinary offering made by the popular Bijou today, and regardless of the additional expense, the Bijou will not raise the price of admission, 5 cents, afternoon or night. The theatre will, of course, be the cool spot, being electrically chilled and freely ventilated, and there will be plenty of new music. The special two-reel release will be Selig's wonderful picturization of the well known rural comedy, "A Midnight Bell," which is the creation of the famed dramatist, Charley Hoyt. Wilmington theatre-goers will remember, some years ago, a superb production of this comedy at the Academy, with Digby Bell in the star role.

A notable cast, including Palmer Bowman and T. J. Commerford, will be seen. The other swell photoplays today will be "The Butterfly of the Day," "Cod Fishing From a Trawler", and "The Titmouse," each a wonderful Pathe creation.

The Grand Theatre

As the hot weather accumulates, so to speak, larger grow the audiences at the handsome Grand Theatre. Of course, there's a reason, and it is simply that The Grand is as cool as an icicle and that daily a big and wonderful show, with an abundance of appropriate incidental music and jolly overtures, is offered and all for the small price of admission of 5 cents, both afternoon and night. Today's programme will be another corker and it is headed by Selig's "A Husband Won by Election," and it offers in the principal roles that handsome, dashing young romantic actor, Mr. Charles Clary, and that charming, vivacious young actress, Miss Winnifred Greenwood. Essanay has a big star on today in "Identical Identities." The roles of the two brothers are assumed by the well-known artists, E. H. Calvert and Frances Mason. There is also a rousing comedy film on today that will serve-up chuckles in rapid-fire way.

FROM DR. STILES

Writes Mayor Relative to Street and Unsanitary Premises

Two communications were received by Mayor Moore yesterday from Dr. C. W. Stiles, in charge of the Marine Hospital, and they will be presented to the Council this morning. In one communication Dr. Stiles calls attention to the well-nigh impassable condition of Eighth street, from Ann to Castle, on account of the deep sand, and states further that Nun street, from Seventh to Eighth, is also in bad condition. Dr. Stiles states that the streets are used right much by the hospital team and by delivery wagons from the stores of the city. In the other communication attention is called to the unsanitary premises of an unoccupied negro house directly opposite the Marine Hospital. Complaint is also made that negroes living on the east side of Eighth street, opposite the hospital, make it more or less a custom to throw their refuse, such as tin cans, decaying food, etc., into the street. Dr. Stiles asks that all these matters receive the attention of the city officials.

FAVORS NEW TREATY.

Secretary Bryan Will Negotiate with Russian Government.

Washington, June 24.—Responding to a suggestion made some time ago by the Russian government, Secretary Bryan has informed Ambassador Bakhmeteff that he would be glad to enter into negotiations for a new treaty of trade and commerce between America and Russia. No attempt has been made actually to open negotiations as yet, and it is understood that the ambassador, who has communicated Secretary Bryan's message to his government, is awaiting instructions from St. Petersburg.

Secretary Bryan stated today that the exchanges had not passed beyond the expression of a mutual desire to have a new treaty, and that there had been no attempt to outline the basis of a new convention.

It has been reported from St. Petersburg that President Wilson had notified the Russian government his administration would be willing to enter into a new treaty only upon the condition that American citizens be "freely admitted" to Russia.

Since the abrogation of the old commercial treaty as a result of feeling against restrictions imposed by Russia upon the entry of American Jews, the necessity for a new convention has bee n demonstrated in various ways. However, there has been no indication that either government is prepared to recede from it's question at issue before.

Unable to swim he was drowned before assistance could go to him. His body was found Monday afternoon. Mr. M. H. Pennsylvania Increases Appropriation to Care for All Veterans—Gov. Craig Notified—Planning I. O. O. F. Temple.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 24.—That every precaution is being taken by the Federal government and the State of Pennsylvania for the very best care to be taken of the veterans of the Blue and the Gray who attend the semi-centennial celebration of the battle of Gettysburg, is indicated by a night letter that came to Governor Craig from Lewis E. Beitler, secretary of the Pennsylvania Gettysburg committee. The telegram reads as follows:

"Appropriations of Congress and of Pennsylvania, each $150,000, adequate to entertain only 50,000 veterans at Gettysburg reunion. Pennsylvania, therefore, acting alone as host for any excess over that number, tonight introduced emergency appropriation in her General Assembly sufficient therefor, increasing her total appropriation to $450,000, and accordingly assures your veterans to the number you lately estimated, similar complete entertainment. Please so advise them immediately."

Hon. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has gone to Greenville to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School, for the purpose of opening bids for the erection of a number of new buildings provided for by the recent Legislature. The appropriation for buildings is $40,000 and there are to be a new dormitory, a central heating plant and an addition to the administration building. Ex-Governor Jarvis is chairman of the committee, and Dr. Joyner and Hon. Y. T. Ormond are the other members.

Grand Master M. L. Shipman, of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., has appointed a special committee to confer with committees from the two Raleigh lodges relative to using their property as a site for the Odd Fellows' Temple of the Grand Lodge. The proposed site is at corner of Salisbury and Harnett streets, a half square from the Masonic Temple. The committee is Gen. B. S. Royster, Col. J. F. Bruton and Gilbert Ward Bryant.

Governor Craig has made order for Judge C. C. Lyon to hold the two weeks term of Robeson county court, beginning June 30th, instead of Judge G. S. Ferguson.

The legislative commission to prepare amendments to the State constitution is meeting in adjourned session at Morehead City. It is possible that a later session will be held at Asheville, to finish the report to the Governor and the Legislature, which must be in the Governor's hands 30 days before he calls the special session of the Legislature.

It is said that there is much doubt if the constitution will be changed in a single particular. The members of the commission themselves, it is said, doubt if there will be a single amendment adopted as recommended. It is stated that the very radical changes of some of the proposed amendments will defeat the whole thing.

The committee named by the Legislature to investigate the proposition of selling the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad to E. Carl Duncan, who offered to buy it at a price of about $900,000, is also meeting in Morehead City.

Later several meetings are likely to be held along the line of the railroad from Morehead to Goldsboro. The members of the commission are Senators Parsons, Gilliam and Weaver and Representatives Young, of Harnett; Seawell, Roberts, Weatherspoon and Stevens.

After July 7th, for the first time in the history of North Carolina, the school committees over the State will be decorated by the presence of ladies, the last Legislature having provided that women can serve on these committees.

July 7th is when the various county boards of education meet to elect county superintendents and name school committeemen. It is expected that the presence of women in the active management of the schools will make for better work in the schools, as their interest is likely to be keener than men usually show, particularly in the rural districts.

In regard to the election of county superintendents, Superintendent J. Y. Joyner has sent out letters to the county boards to elect the best men for these positions, regardless of politics or anything else, and to select committeemen and committeewomen who will hire the best teachers available.

This year the new law compelling attendance for at least four months in the year on the part of every child who can possibly attend school, goes into effect, and the result is that a very large increase in the number of students is certain. The State is preparing to spend $400,000 extra on the schools, for a six-months term. Officers to see that the attendance law is enforced will be elected by the county boards.

MUCH DAMAGE BY STORM

Funeral of Carlyle Heath Held—Lenoir Rate Association

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 24.—The Lenoir county branch of the North Carolina Just Freight Rate Association was organized here this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mayor Fred I. Sutton, H. E. Moseley, president of the Kinston Marchants' Association, and Herbert Ramseur, of Fayetteville, who has been here since yesterday morning to aid in the organization, took the leading part in the spirited meeting at which representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Association, farmers' union and other bodies were present in strong delegations.

A telephone message today told of damage by Sunday night's wind, rain and electrical storm, which swept this section, in Greene county. The storm assumed cyclonic proportions in the country north of here, and did some damage to corn and other crops, which is believed to be alight. At Snow Hill lightning struck a barn belonging to F. A. Moseley, and in the fire which resulted 10,000 pounds of hay and a horse were burned. The loss was estimated at $1,000, with no insurance. A prize milch cow, the property of a man in the suburbs of the town, was killed by lightning.

The funeral of Carlyle Heath, who was fatally shot in South Kinston Saturday night by James Underhill while the latter was shooting at colored men with whom he had quarreled, was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The service was conducted by Rev. B. P. Smith, pastor of the Christian church, and large delegations of three orders, including the Masonic, attended. Mr. Heath was 36 years old.

UNDERWRITERS TOMORROW.

Fayetteville Will Entertain Them in Royal Style.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 24.—The North Carolina Underwriters meet here tomorrow in annual session and will continue through the day following. They are congratulating themselves on securing as a speaker Mr. J. H. Southgate, president of the National Association of Fire Insurance Agents.

Mr. Southgate is not only a very prominent man in the insurance world, but an orator of more than minor note, and what he says is always well said. At the afternoon session Thursday he will discuss the practical and ethical phases of fire insurance.

Mr. Southgate has just completed a tour of the West in the interest of fire insurance and its local underwriters, and in this connection his talk will be of especial interest to the insurance men. He was entertained a great deal in the West and was recently given a big banquet in Boston, where he was on a mission similar to the one which took him beyond the Mississippi.

Another authority on fire insurance matters who has been asked to talk to the delegates is Insurance Commissioner Jas. R. Young. He will discuss the agents' qualifications law in an after-dinner speech at a banquet to be given in the Knights of Pythias banqueting hall Thursday night. Still another expert in his line, Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, of this city, who is habitually elected president every Summer by the North Carolina Firemen's Association, and a former president of the National Association, will be present at the supper and will address the underwriters on the relation of the fire service to the fire insurance agent. The problems of the local board, particularly the benefit of close co-operation among its members, is a subject that will be discussed by Major B. R. Huske, who, like Capt. McNeill, is a local man. Col. Walker Taylor, of Wilmington, will speak on a subject which has not yet been determined.

The insurance writers will be welcomed to Fayetteville by T. A. Lyon. The morning session on the first day will be given over to routine business except for the president's address. The president is Robt. E. Follin, of Winston-Salem. At the afternoon session the only business savoring of routine affairs to be handled will be a report on the president's address by a committee which is always appointed to consider and report on the various recommendations which may be made in the president's speech. The rest of the sitting will be given to Mr. Southgate's address and an open discussion.

Friday morning the convention will open with an executive session, followed by committee reports, election of officers, informal discussions, and lastly, the selection of a meeting place for next year.

FAYETTEVILLE FIRM WINS.

Gets Contract from National Wood Products Co., of This City.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 24.—In competition with the bigest distillery manufacturers of New York and Pittsburg, McMillan Brothers, of this city, have secured a contract of unusual size from the National Wood Products Company, of Wilmington.

This is for the manufacture of three big stills aggregating a capacity of 3,500 gallons, and seven large condensers. One of the three stills, which are to be used in the making of spirits, will be of 1,500 gallons capacity, and the other two of 1,000 gallons each. The larger still is for heavy oils and the others for refined oils. The equipment, such as the worms, caps, pipes, etc., will, of course, be made here.

Lieut. William C. Owen, of the United States Navy, a Fayetteville boy, has been promoted to the command of the U. S. S. Decatur during the protracted illness of the Decatur's regular commander. The Decatur is cruising in Philippine waters.

Benjamin McNeill, of Hope Mills village No. 2, has gone to Washington to copyright a baseball song he has written. The composition is called "Baseball Days."

BURGAW NEWS NOTES.

Three Hundred Dollars Subscribed for Barium Springs.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., June 24.—Burgaw subscribed $300 to the $50,000 being raised for the Barium Springs Orphanage of the Presbyterian church, when Rev. R. A. Lapsley, Jr., of Clarkton, presented the cause of the orphanage at the Presbyterian church here Sunday night.

Mr. Lapsley is engaged in raising $10,000 to complete the fund for permanent equipment at the worthy institution. His presentation of the subject was very effective and Burgaw Presbyterians will add still more to the amount subscribed Sunday.

Miss Annie Barnes, of Reidsville, and Lena Ivey, of Lenoir, arrived Monday to attend the Paddison-Turner wedding; and Mrs. H. L. Cook, of High Springs, Fla., is also here for the wedding, and will remain some time afterward.

Mrs. J. B. Moore has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Carl Turnage, near Greenville.

The concert by the singing class of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage at Goldsboro, was enjoyed very much by Burgaw people Monday evening. The programme was rendered in a very creditable manner.

Charleston, S. C., June 24.—In the United States District Court here today, Judge Henry A. M. Smith decided that a modern Syrian of Asiatic birth is not entitled to naturalization as a citizen of the United States.

cure on a new principle. Put it on any corn in two seconds; it stops pain, the corn begins to shrivel and disappears. It never fails. Simplest thing you ever saw. No fussy bandages, no greasy salves to turn healthy flesh "peely" and raw, no plasters that make corns bulge out. Your corns won't pull and hurt 'way up to your heart. Lay aside your knife and razor. No more digging and tugging and wincing, no more bleeding, no more danger of blood poison. "GETS-IT" never hurts healthy flesh; it is safe, painless, quick, simple, sure. It is very unkind of ex-Governor Robert Broadnax Glenn to put the whole State on tenter hooks by casually remarking as he sped through Asheville on his way West, that he would decide about September 1st whether he would throw his hat in the ring and go after the toga of Senator Overman. He should have more consideration for our nerves.

IRISH POTATOES, THE RIGHT KIND.

Throughout the South the time has been when half an acre or an acre was considered a big crop. Early in the season they were considered a great delicacy, but in a month or two the entire crop was gone and everybody waited for the Northern crop, or did without. The time has been when there was no market for Irish potatoes, and still there is only a small local demand where farms are remote from transportation facilities for reaching the big city markets of the North. However, in these days of the refrigerator trains, the potato grower who is near the railroad is in luck if he can get into the market with an early crop and there is anything like a good marketing place. Distribution means everything to the potato grower, the trucker and the berry producer, and when the markets are not glutted by indiscriminate shipping, it spells success for the farmer. Otherwise he takes his chances, and then he rarely ever comes out at the little end of the horn.

Throughout North Carolina a large area produces Irish potatoes on a commercialized basis. In other words they are produced for the big markets and transportation is provided where the crop is large enough to warrant it. Yet there are portions of the South where the little potato patch still prevails, and the farmers do not produce enough for their own families except for about 60 days. That should not be so, for it is not only one of the best but most economical of food crops. There really is no excuse for a farmer to be without potatoes both Summer and Winter, if the proper effort is made.

The farmer who raises and keeps potatoes can always find a good market at one time or the other. The demand at home and abroad is simply immense. In the great cities there is a tremendous demand, and while some one or more markets may be glutted for a while, it doesn't last long. In fact, when one market is glutted there is a potato famine in others if the growers only knew it. Anyhow, Southern farmers ought to grow their own potatoes, and will always have plenty on the table. There is a half dozen ways to cook them. And they are good when prepared in any way for the table.

Some people say Irish potatoes won't keep in the South. They won't keep if there are only enough produced to last about 30 or 60 days. They won't keep unless we are prepared to keep them, or produce enough to warrant preparation for taking care of the crop. We know an Iowa man who came South to grow Irish potatoes, and he was told that they wouldn't keep. Of course they wouldn't keep our way. But he had a way of his own to keep them. He kept them, too, and sold all his crop at home in the Winter. He didn't keep them in a damp cellar. He kept them in a well ventilated potato barn, and kept his eye on them. He did not put up wet potatoes. He saw that they were dry before he put them up. He didn't put them up in the green state. He marketed the green ones, and kept the ripe ones. When it is desired to keep potatoes, they should be ripe and well matured.

The Ohio farmer who keeps potatoes in the South plants the right kind. There are several varieties, one of which tastes like a turnip, and shrivels up like an Egyptian mummy. That isn't the right kind to plant at any time, and certainly isn't the kind to keep for planting next season.

There are potatoes and potatoes, but some people think all kinds are potatoes. However, there is a difference, and it makes all the difference in the world about the kind of land they are grown in. Some land suited for one variety is totally unfit for another. The best way to grow potatoes, keep down potato pest, guard against potato diseases, and keep potatoes, is to get the information from the Agricultural Department at Washington, or from the State Agricultural Department, which are now geting on an efficient basis when agriculturalists instead of politicians are in charge of the work and don't have to learn after they get on the job.

There is a way to grow potatoes just as we have found out that there is a better way than the old way to grow cotton, corn, peaches, and strawberries. The daily newspapers can only throw out the hints. The Agricultural Department and farm journals will tend to the rest. The daily newspaper is an aid to them in arousing attention and getting the farmers in touch with headquarters. The daily newspapers are co-operating in the work because they now realize that they are aiding in developing the greatest resource of the county. The mines may close down, the hum of industry may be stilled, but unless there is good farming and unless farming goes on forever, the one hundred million people in this country will have to go hungry.

We are for the Irish potato, and hence we approve this from the Callahan (Fla.) Leader: "The day is not far distant when all the land around Callahan will be one vast Irish potato farm, as the leading growers of this county are becoming interested here, and this fact alone will secure Callahan's future." That is a good idea. It is impossible to produce more potatoes than the country needs, if they are distributed properly and provision is made for keeping them. Eastern North Carolina is the premier potato growing country, and there is no excuse for our people being without potatoes after the markets have been supplied early in the season.

There is no more excuse for us to be hungry for potatoes than there is for the present dearth of peaches in a country that can grow them to perfection if the farmers of Eastern North Carolina will learn how. Plant a Fall crop of potatoes and raise fine ones like the Hon. J. A. Brown does at Chadbourn. Shortly after they are dug set out from one to five acres in fruit trees.

RIGHTS TO WATERPOWER.

The people own the navigable streams of this country and the government holds them in trust for the public. That is about what is meant by a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. Under that decision the government recently won suits against several power and electrical companies which had asserted and exercised ownership over the waters of certain navigable waterways.

In disposing of those cases the Supreme Court commented in its decision: "That the running water in a great navigable stream is capable of private ownership is inconceivable." That indicates how absolutely certain the court was that there could not possibly be such a thing as private ownership of a natural resource that belonged wholly to the public. Certainly it is most encouraging to the movement for the conservation of public control over water power generated, or capable of being generated, in streams declared under authority of Congress to be navigable.

It is said that the esential fact settled by the decision is that ownership of land on the banks of a river, involves no vested rights in the flow of the river; that such claimants have no right to erect in such water courses any works calculated to make private use of the flow, and that there is no valid basis for a claim to an element of value which did not inhere in the value of the land. The Supreme Court holds in a general way that the power of Congress over navigable streams is absolute; that in all subsidiary respects the power of a State, while undenied, is secondary to the power of Congress; that the existing power of Congress and permits from the Secretary of War are prerequisite to the construction of any and all kinds of works on a navigable stream.

Acting under that construction of the law, the Secretary of War brought suits against several companies for the recovery of damages for erecting hydro-electric plants on certain navigable streams that belong to the public. The Supreme Court affirms the decision of a lower court which had awarded the government damages as follows: Against the Chandler-Dunbar Waterpower Company, $652,332, of which $550,000 was the estimated value of the waterpower that had been unlawfully taken; St. Mary's Falls Power Company, $21,000, and the Edison-Sault Electric Company, $300,000.

The question is, what is a navigable stream? Practically all streams of any size can be made navigable under the method of waterway improvement in Germany. It probably depends upon what the engineers would say about it, and even then, if "the power of Congress over navigable streams is absolute", it depends entirely upon what the Congress would decide. Practically the same decision has been rendered concerning water fronts on navigable bodies of water. It was held, practically, in the case of the city of Chicago, that corporations and private owners had no right to even deny the public access to the navigable waterfront, and if such frontage was necessary for public use, it could be condemned and converted to public use by assessing the price to be paid for it by the public. Otherwise, corporate or private owners could monopolize a port or a navigable waterway.

COMPETITION HAS A SHOWING.

Breaking up the trusts may not be good for them, but it is good for the other fellow who wants to go into business without being crushed. It has been said that breaking up the trusts would not benefit the consumers, but it is hard to make consumers believe it. Consumers know that trusts had not done any benevolent work in their behalf before they were "busted."

If combinations can be controlled by law in their operations, and it seems that they are about in a position to admit it, since a people's government has been nstated at Washington—it gives independent operators a chance. Already it is stated that the Standard Oil Company is to have formidable opposition from the Walters-Pierce Oil Company. A St. Louis dispatch says the Walters-Pierce Oil Company is being re-organized on a large scale, backed by the Rothschilds. The capital stock is to be increased from $400,000 to $10,000,000. New York bankers are said to be also interested.

Purely in the interest of fair play and a hearing for every side of a public question, The Star is printing elsewhere on this page a communication entitled, "A Plea for Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness." The writer would have a photographer take a few snapshots of the "mountains of liquor consigned daily to the people of this community," and he then proceeds to show wherein prohibition is a failure, a delusion and a snare. It might be remarked in passing that the "mountains" of one gallon packages—granting that even they are bad—are a far more eloquent testimonial to the temperance and sobriety of Wilmington people than would be row after row and carload after carload of barrels that used to be the favorite receptacle for "liquid refreshments" shipped here for the consumption of Wilmington folks.

It is announced that William Allen White, of Kansas, is "threatening to desert the Bull Moosers for the Democratic party." The candidate will please be seated in the ante-room where the committee on floppery can thoroughly examine him on the principles of the order. If he has abandoned all the queer ideas and idiosyncrises that are indigent and inherent in Kansas, he may be christened for the first round among the faithful. After he shall have been tested and shown no disposition to flop if he can't have his own way, he may approach the sacred shrine, bow to the fetish and be turned loose to take care of himself like Democrats have to do. If he can stand for having his loyalty called into question and remains faithful after being walloped for office several times, he will be branded for good. Democratic principles were in existence when the now-extinct dodo was first hatched, and if a man can't believe it he can expect nothing else than to be turned out to grass with Nebuchadnezzar.

Says the Jacksonville Times Union: "Frederick Ober has just died but he had completed his 'Heroes of American History' who were, as he thought Columbus, Cortez, DeSota, Pizarro, Balboa, DeLeon, Magellan, Vespucci, the two Cabots and Sir Walter Raleigh." We are satisfied he had to mention Raleigh on account of his being North Carolina's original booster. He wasn't born here but he did everything in his power to make up for it.

It is a rare day that President Wilson doesn't tie a can to some precedent or other. Monday he tied another one to that majestic old fraud that a President can't talk to Congress, and walked bareheaded from the White House to the gate with one of his callers—a man named A. Popham Lobb, at that, which was of itself a nervy thing to do.

CURRENT COMMENT.

This paper especially desires to congratulate the people of the C. F. and F. V., between Greensboro and Mt. Airy in securing the consent of the Southern Railway Company to operate a new train between these two points. The Daily News has long contended that inadequate service was supplied these people, and we believe that with the new schedule there will be an increase of business that will soon make the trains pay. The best way to kill off a section of country is to give it inadequate service, and we are especially glad the Southern has been brought to see the needs of the Mt. Airy section. The people of Mt. Airy made a strong fight, with effective results. The train will be especially valuable in promoting Summer business for Mt. Airy and neighboring resorts.—Greensboro News.

In North Carolina's Hall of History is the most splendid message ever sent by a North Carolinian and it is, like all really great messages, in a few words. Here it is: "Tell my father I died with my face to the enemy." It was written on the field at fateful Gettysburg and the writer was the gallant Col. Isaac Erwin Avery. He and his horse were both shot and his right side was useless, but as he reclined, dying slowly, he contrived to get from a pocket a pad of paper and on it wrote, or rather scrawled, this message to our race throughout the ages. It is an epitome of North Carolina's work at Gettysburg, because that was the fashion in which our men went to their fate on that field. This message, over which men and women have looked with eyes full of what have been aptly called proud tears, carries with it a meaning for other people than those who are soldiers, for North Carolina ever calls on her sons and her daughters too to keep their faces towards many sorts of enemies. We do not have to recount these enemies; the public conscience knows them all too well. All North Carolina wants is that, knowing them, we shall be prepared to die if need be, in our opposition to them.—Raleigh Times.

Already, before the Recorder's courts of Robeson county have been in operation one month, the Lumberton correspondent of the Wilmington Star condemns them as a farce. We suppose he has talked with some of those who are, for personal or private reasons, opposed to these courts being held outside the province of Lumberton, and puts their views into print. It might be well to ask our Lumberton friend if he has taken the trouble to see whether this court machinery is working in a satisfactory manner at a saving to the county. As for the jail being now full with a number out on bond, this condition came about before the Recorders' courts were set in motion. We will cite one case of speedy justice that came under our eyes: On June 7th, Recorder Bule had a case before him of carrying concealed weapons. In less than four hours, the man arrested was serving four months' road sentence. Under the old way of doing things it would have been a case for the Superior Court with at least $25 expense account attached. We heard one of our prominent men who works a large force of hands say the other day that good effects are already to be seen. The Recorders' courts and rural police deserve a fair show. Don't you think so, Mr. Lumberton?—Red Springs Citizen.

"A PLEA FOR LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS."

To the Editor of The Star:

I wish that one of your local photographers, (Kendrick preferred) would pay a visit to the express office and take a few pictures of the mountains of liquor consigned daily to people of this community, thus emphasizing the utter futility and abject puerility of "so-called" prohibition. This demoralizing "Webb" law is making hypocrites and lawbreakers out of men who would otherwise be honest and it incidentally forces the beer drinker to use liquor, owing to the difficulty of obtaining the former delightful and wholesome beverage. Maybe some of your readers are provincial enough to believe that a similar was is being waged in Europe. If so, they can easily be disillusioned, if they will take a trip to France, Germany or Great Britain, for in these countries there is no prohibition and there never will be any prohibition and I purposely select three of the greatest and most intellectual countries in the world. No sir, the fact of the matter is that in Europe no man of any respectable calling can afford to be seen drunk in public without incurring the danger of business loss or social ostracism, and the result is that drunkenness is usually confined to the very lowest and most ignorant classes. Hoping you will give this letter as much space as I think it deserves, I am,

Yours truly,

STATE JEWELERS IN SESSION

Eighth Annual Convention at Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach—Visitors Warmly Welcomed to the Resort

The eighth annual convention of the North Carolina Retail Jewelers' Association convened at the Seashore Hotel yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock with an attendance of between 50 and 75 members. The session was called to order by the president, Mr. William G. Frasier, of Durham, who, after the opening prayer by Mr. R. C. Bernau, of Greensboro, introduced Mayor Parker Quince Moore. Mayor Moore made the address of welcome which was responded to by Mr. Bernau, of Greensboro.

The morning session was concluded with the appointment of committees by the president and the reading of the report of the secretary, Mr. W. B. Morris, of Gastonia. In the afternoon Col. John Shepard, of the Keystone Watch Case Company, and Mr. R. W. Muncaster, of Florence, S. C., made addresses which were followed by a general discussion. There was no session last night.

Mayor Moore in his address said that Wilmington extended a cordial and sincere welcome to the jewelers, who by reason of their valuable service to the life of our country, have come to occupy a peculiar social relation to our citizens. He spoke reminiscently of the time when his mother had taught him about that city whose streets are laid with gold and whose gates are adorned with precious stones. He also recalled the time when he had purchased from a jeweler a beautiful little diamond ring which he had been permitted to take to the mountains of his beloved State, and place on the finger of one of her fair daughters.

In view of these things and others he extended to this association even a more hearty welcome, if possible, than ordinarily, and wished for them the greatest pleasure during their stay at the beach and the highest profit from their meetings. The welcoming speech was delivered in the Mayor's usual happy style, and on account of its apparent sincerity was listened to with the greatest interest by the visitors.

Mr. Bernau in his response said that the visiting jewelers heartily reciprocated the kind sentiments voiced by the Mayor, and that they would gladly avail themselves of the opportunity to look over Wilmington and learn something of its wonderful resources. He endorsed the plan recently suggested by Mr. A. J. Maxwell for making Wilmington the gateway port of the State, and thought that this would prove mutually profitable for all sections of the State. He stated that while the convention was in session primarily to consider matters of business policy they would gladly avail themselves of the many opportunities for enjoying themselves offered by the beach and the city of Wilmington.

Mr. W. B. Morris, the enterprising and capable secretary of the association, read his annual report which showed that the financial condition is in excellent shape. He called attention in his report to the plan that the convention has for issuing its annual programme. By means of the insertion of advertising from the various jewelry concerns of the country they are enabled to pay all expenses of its publication, and have a handsome balance left for the treasury.

The president then read the list of committees which are as follows:

Auditing—Sam K. Eaton, Newbern; B. R. Jolly, Raleigh; R. C. Bernau, Greensboro.

Resolution—G. W. Huggins, Wilmington; R. C. Bernau, Greensboro; J. M. Fox, Rocky Mount.

Nomination—A. L. Wilcox, Durham; W. H. Leonard, Salisbury; H. W. Mixon, Henderson.

Application—A. E. Sheets, Lexington; H. M. Van Sleen, Gastonia; F. E. Starnes, Albemarle.

A committee consisting of Messrs. E. F. Miscally, R. C. Bernau, B. R. Jolly was appointed to draft resolutions in honor of the three deceased members of the association.

Mr. Bernau introduced a resolution for the consideration of the resolution committee relative to "busting" the Watch Crystal trust. He said that some of the dealers in the near past bought crystals for $1.75 but now are charged $4 a gross for them, while the price in England and Germany remains the same as formerly. Mr. Bernau said it did not affect him as he buys in foreign markets.

President's Address.

At the opening of the afternoon session President Frasier read his annual report. He emphasized especially the value of unity. "In unity there is strength," he stated, and he urged all the members to endeavor to carry out the idea embodied in that word. "Let its meaning be to do away with fraud, with the man without character and the deceiver, who are too loathsome to hold communion with true and upright jewelers. When we accomplish these grand principles, we will be one united brotherhood and will have accomplished those purposes and ends for which we are organized," he said.

He urged the importance of every member taking an active part in the work of the association. "Surely there is no one so insignificant as not to be able to do something to advance its interests. Paying dues is not all our organization is not one that can accomplish its ends by money alone," said the speaker.

"Jewelers' Associations in every State of the Union mean something and count for something, and the members should take pride in having a membership certificate, and it should be placed in a conspicuous place in your store. The day will come when a firm that does not have a membership card will be placed in the same light as the quack doctor, and this should apply to all, no matter how large or how small.

"You should feel proud of the progress that you have made in North Carolina. It is gratifying to know that our association is recognized as one of the strongest State associations in the Union, and I have been unable to find any one of the 48 States that has a more loyal and a more complete association than ours. With a very small exception we can boast of having every jeweler in the State as a member. We hope ere long to bring these few within the folds of our organization.

"It is self apparent that our National law-makers have decided to do away with fixed prices, and here comes another hard problem for the jeweler, in which the manufacturer should take a part. I hope to hear the matter discussed more in detail at this meeting."

President Frasier reviewed at length the many hard problems that the jeweler has to face in the daily transactions of his business, and declared that he did not think that there is a business of any kind that demanded

MATTERS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

Several Questions Will Come Up This Morning, Including Sunday Selling, Water Rates to Suburbs, Etc.

Unless all signs fail and the present tentative programme is abandoned the regular meeting of the City Council this morning will develop about as much interesting discussion as some of the previous sessions of that body, though perhaps not quite so much feeling will be shown. A number of matters of general interest and importance are slated for consideration.

The question of water rates to Carolina Heights and Carolina Place, brought up at the last meeting by Councilman Wood, will be considered this morning. A committee was appointed and report will likely be made today. Attention was called yesterday to the fact that there is already an ordinance requiring that persons living outside of the city shall pay double the rate charged inside the city. It is Section 665, and reads as follows:

"Conditions for use of City Water by Persons Outside City—Double Rates Charged, Etc.—The water from the municipal system shall only be supplied to persons or premises outside the city limits upon proper application to the department, and upon conditions that such users shall comply in all respects with all the rules and regulations prescribed, or that may hereafter be adopted by the Council of the City of Wilmington in that behalf. That water from the municipal water service shall only be supplied to consumers outside the city limits through meter service, and the minimum charge to any consumer shall be double the rate or charge prescribed for consumers by meter service inside said corporate limits, unless otherwise provided by the Council."

The ordinance covers the very point that was made by Councilman Wood, who stated that a number of persons had been to him and stated that they thought the residents of Carolina Heights and Carolina Place, who pay no city taxes on property owned by them in these suburbs, should be required to pay more for water than is charged people living inside the corporate limits. It seems from the ordinance, that it is "up to", the Water and Sewerage Department to charge double the city rate unless otherwise ordered by the Council.

The committee appointed some time ago will likely report this morning on the question of how far the city should go in the matter of relieving persons of interest on back taxes. In some cases the taxes have been running so long that the interest almost equals the principal. Members of Council seem to think that it would be unwise to have a hard and fast rule, and it has been suggested that a standing committee should be named to deal with each individual case on its merits. It is pointed out that in some cases the owner of the property on which the back taxes are held is ignorant of the encumbrance due to no fault of his but rather to the inability of the attorney in searching title at the time he bought the property to find any back claims. In such cases some members of the Council think that the city could well afford to give relief from the interest. But on the other hand where a person knowingly and wilfully neglects to pay the tax on his property, it is held that he should be required to pay the interest, every cent of it. Hence the suggestion that a committee be named with power to look into these matters and deal with each case separately. How the committee feels about the matter will not be known until the report is made, probably today.

The auditors, Mr. McCabe, of Wilmington, and Mr. Scott, of Charlotte, after two weeks' work, have completed a very thorough audit of the books of the city and will make report at the meeting this morning. The report will be of general interest. A number of recommendations will likely be made. It is expected that one of the recommendations will be a re-organization or remodeling of the accounting department, with a view of placing all this work under one head. The effect would be to place the collections for water and sewerage rents in the treasury department. The changes that it is expected the auditors will recommend in this regard have been sought by Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, for several years.

The question of Sunday selling will be brought forward again. It was learned yesterday that the city attorney has drafted an ordinance to take the place of the one that was repealed two weeks ago; but whether the measure will be submitted this morning or will go over until a later meeting no one about the city hall yesterday seemed to know, though the opinion was that it would be turned over to the Council this morning. The measure provides, it is said, for a wide-open Sunday and permits the combination cigar stores and pool rooms as well as drug stores, confectioners, etc., to stay open and sell cigars and cool drinks, provided the pool tables in the rear are curtained off from view. The cigar store owners have not asked the privilege of opening on Sunday, so far as is known, as they get about as much in the way of work as they want in the six week days, though if one opens others would probably follow suit. The city attorney in drafting an ordinance was concerned only with the legal phase; it is up to the Council when the measure is presented to say how much Sunday selling, etc., it desires to permit.

Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, county superintendent of health, had hoped to move today to the new quarters of the health department in the basement of the Court House, and he may do so yet, but not until after the City Council has said how much of the office furnishings and fixtures it is desired shall remain in the present office. Dr. Nesbitt was given notice by the chief of police not to remove anything from the office until he has been authorized by the City Council. The reason for this order, as Dr. Nesbitt found out later, is that the Councilman of Public Safety desires to use the present office of the health department for his office and expects to retain whatever office furniture he may need. Of course, the County Board of Health will be called on to supply the health office in the Court House with whatever pieces of furniture are lacking after the city takes what it wants of the present equipment. The furniture removed from the present office to the new office will be inventoried and a price set upon each piece so that the county can pay to the city one-fifth of the estimated value. The county is also to pay one-fifth of the inventoried value of the scavenger equipment. It is estimated that the scavenger equipment and the office furniture is worth around $4,200, one-fifth of which is to be paid by the county to the city. The Council and the County Commissioners will likely appoint a committee to appraise the value of the scavenger outfit and the office furniture.

DECORATING FOR SHRINERS

Two Thousand Yards of Bunting, in Colors of Order, Will be Used—Finishing Touches for the Big Gathering

The local committees are hard at work now with the finishing touches to the arrangements for the semi-annual gathering of Oasis Temple, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Wrightsville Beach, tomorrow and Friday, which will be the largest attended affair to be given at the resort this season. Last night it was stated that an attendance of 800 Shriners is expected. Oceanic Hotel is headquarters of the gathering.

A meeting was held last night of the central committee in charge of arrangements with Mr. Joseph F. Leitner, the chairman, presiding. A number of plans for the entertainment of the visitors were discussed and decided upon.

Following the committee meeting work of decorating the cottages on the island was begun and will be completed tonight. Mr. J. S. Williams is chairman of the decorating committee and the C. W. Polvogt Co. has the contract for doing the decorating. It is stated that this is the first time Wrightsville Beach has ever been decorated for any purpose. Every cottage at the resort is to be decorated. Two thousand yards of cloth in the colors of the order, orange and maroon, have been purchased with which to decorate the cottages and gay Lumina. About 20 yards are being given to each of the 80-odd cottages on the beach. A large number of flags have been purchased and are being placed about the hotels and on other buildings. Last night 30 cottages on the northern end of the beach were decorated. The work will continue through today and tonight, and when the bulk of the visitors arrive at noon Thursday they will find a most gaily decorated resort.

Advices last night were that the special train of Pullmans from Charlotte Thursday would bring 195 Shriners. A number of Shriners have already arrived and a great many others will get here today.

Thursday night a souvenir dance will be given at Lumina in honor of the visitors, following the exhibition drill to be given by the Arab Patrol. Lumina will be more attractively and elaborately decorated than it has been at any time this season. Yards and yards of cloth in the colors of the order and hundreds of small flags will be used in the decorations. Handsome pennants in the colors of the order will be given as souvenirs.

Everything will be in gala attire for the Shriners and everything possible will be done by the local members of the order to make their stay at the beach the most enjoyable of any similar occasion they have ever attended.

A building of intricate workmanship is being erected on the north side of the north wing of the Oceanic Hotel, which will be used for the Shriners' banquet to be given Friday night. Mr. J. F. Leitner is the architect in charge, and he has planned a new kind of building, one that if different from anything else on the American continent or any other continent for that matter. Those who are fortunate enough to be admitted within its precincts Friday night are promised more fun than they will ever have again during their entire future existence.

DR. PRIDE J. THOMAS DEAD

Prominent Young Physician Passes Suddenly at Home of Parents

This entire community will be shocked and saddened this morning upon the anouncement of the sudden death of Dr. Pride Jones Thomas, one of Wilmington's most popular young physicians, a son of Dr. and Mrs. George G. Thomas. Young Dr. Thomas passed away last midnight at the family home, Third and Market streets, heart disease being the cause. While his intimate friends have known for some months that he had a very serious affection of the heart, none were prepared for the shock that comes with the announcement of the death of this promising young physician and the most sincere sympathy will go out to the devoted parents and brother in their bereavement.

Dr. Thomas retired as usual last night, suffered an acute attack a few minutes before midnight and in spite of the fact that his father, one of the most skilled physicians in the State, was with him at the time, nothing could be done to stay the hand of death.

Dr. Pride Jones Thomas was born in Wilmington and had lived here all his life. He was 38 years of age on the 27th of last February. He was educated at the University of North Carolina and at the University of Maryland, receiving the degree of M. D., about 12 years ago, since which time he had been associated with his father in the service of the Atlantic Coast Line and in general practice upon his own account. He had many sterling qualities of mind and heart and was a general favorite wherever he was known. The news of his passing will come with sincere sorrow to a host of friends not only in Wilmington but all over the State.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, from St. James' Episcopal church, by Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, the rector, and interment will be in Oakdale.

Much Damage by Storms

This week has been characterized by severe electrical storms, accompanied by wind and rain, over a wide territory in the eastern section of the State. Maxton, Fayetteville, Goldsboro, Kinston, Snow Hill, LaGrange and other places report terrific disturbances Sunday and Monday nights. Lightning has struck a number of valuable properties, including the woodware factory at Fayetteville and a $7,000 tobacco warehouse at LaGrange. Accidents, chief of which is that at Goldsboro, told of elsewhere, have accompanied the storms. Wilmington so far this Summer has escaped any severe onslaught of the elements.

ROAD MATTER IN COURT

Mr. Joseph Fenley Found Guilty of Obstructing Thoroughfare—Other Cases Before the Recorder Yesterday.

The principal matter before the Recorder yesterday was the case against Mr. Joseph Fenley, who was charged with having obstructed the old Greenville or Meares road, near where it enters the turnpike, a short distance from the two-mile post, by cutting a ditch and building a fence across it. A fine of $25 and costs was assessed against Mr. Fenley, but final judgment was left open until this morning, the presumption being that if the defendant agrees to remove the obstructions the fine will be remitted.

Notice of appeal was given yesterday, but in the afternoon there was an intimation that Mr. Fenley would not contest the case further.

Mr. Fenley is represented by W. P. Stacy, Esq., and John D. Bellamy & Son, while County Solicitor Peschau appears for the prosecution. The matter has been in controversy for some time before the County Commissioners. At a recent meeting the Commissioners refused to take any action, on the ground that the county had abandoned supervision of this road when the turnpike was purchased, and that the question of whether or not it could be closed was a matter for the courts to decide.

A few days ago Mr. J. L. Williams had a warrant sworn out charging Mr. Fenley with unlawfully closing the road. Yesterday counsel for the defendant asked that the bill of indictment be quashed on the ground that the County Commissioners had already passed on the matter. This, however, the Recorder refused to do.

The main point of contention was whether or not this road over which the county has abandoned supervision was still a public road, the prosecution contending that it was, while the defendant took the ground that it had been totally abandoned.

A large number of witnesses for the prosecution were put on the stand to prove that this road had been a public road for the last 40 years, and that it had never been formally abandoned by the Board of County Commissioners. It was also testified that it was the only public road by which some eight or ten citizens had any way of getting out except by a private road. It was closed first about a year ago, it was stated, by a tree being cut across it.

Since Mr. Fenley had placed obstructions in the way on or about the 1st of June several testified that they had to go from a quarter to a mile out of the way to reach the turnpike, and then had to travel a private road. There was a difference of opinion as to the condition of a private road which Mr. Fenley had opened up, some saying that it was full of stumps, while others said that it did not contain so many stumps.

Mr. Fenley, in his own behalf, stated that he had obstructed the road because of some lots that he wished to sell, and that before doing so he had talked with several who assured him that it would be all right. He opened up another road for the use of those who had no way of reaching the turnpike.

Mr. D. McEachern, who was chairman of the Board of County Commissioners at the time the turnpike was purchased in 1902, testified that it had been the purpose of the Board of Commisisoners at that time to abandon the old road. Other witnesses were introduced to corroborate his testimony.

Counsel for the prosecution read several decisions to show that the only way in which a public road can be closed in North Carolina is either to do it on petition of the citizens using the road, or by its having ceased to have been used for a period of 20 years. They contended that neither one of these processes had been gone through with in the present instance.

Counsel for the defendant contended that the road had been legally closed in that the Commissioners had refused to work the road, and had at the time the turnpike was purchased intended to close it up, and that while they had failed to comply with a mere technicality of the law to all intents and purposes, they had closed the road. Not only was the road closed but the defendant had provided another road for the use of those who wished to get out, and had put it in good condition. And at least two other parties had placed stakes in the road at another point and nothing had been done with them.

Oscar Johnson, colored, was given six months on the roads for using an axe handle on another negro last Friday, and was also given an additional six months for assaulting Ella Nixon on the same day. Johnson has the reputation of being a "bad egg". It is said that he killed a man and was given 30 years in the State penitentiary, but was pardoned by the late Governor Russell. In addition to the 30-year sentence he also had a five-year sentence for having assaulted another man.

Sweets Bingamon was fined $25 and the costs for carrying concealed weapons. Judgment was suspended in the case of James Henderson, charged with violating the driving ordinance by driving on the wrong side of the street. Judgment was also suspended upon payment of the costs in a case against Nathan King, a deaf and dumb boy, who was charged with having stolen a bicycle and carried it to Acme, where he disposed of it.

Mr. B. B. Trask was before the Recorder on the charge of having used a deadly weapon on one Charley Neal, colored. The evidence in the case showed that Neal had used vile language in speaking to Mr. Trask's son, and that Mr. Trask had come out to the field where Neal was working, seized the hoe which he was using and struck him. Mr. Trask entered a submission to the charge, but stated that he acted under great provocation. Judgment was held open.

DIED SUDDENLY AT ORTON.

Chas. Steiner, New York Salesman, Found Dead in Room at Hotel.

Dead in his chair, sitting as if asleep, Mr. Charles Steiner, a New York traveling salesman, was found in his room at The Orton Hotel yesterday afternoon at about 4:30 o'clock. Acting Coroner M. H. Brimmer, after viewing the body and investigating the circumstances, decided no inquest was necessary, and the remains were turned over to the Woolvin Funeral Parlors to be prepared for burial.

Mr. Steiner was a man of middle age and had been coming to Wilmington for many years as the representative of the wholesale and manufacturing jewelry firm of L. Adler & Co., 142 Fulton street, New York. He was here this week to attend the State convention of jewelers. The local retail jewelers knew him well and the management of The Orton had known him as a regular guest for a long while. He was unmarried and is survived by a sister in New York.

Yesterday morning he complained of feeling unwell, but was at Wrightsville Beach to attend the opening session of the convention. He returned to the city at noon. In the early afternoon he retired to his room, and nothing was heard of him until 20 minutes past 4 o'clock, when he 'phoned the office to send a doctor to him.

Dr. Caldwell was immediately secured and he arrived in a few minutes, but meanwhile Mr. Steiner had died, sitting in his chair, alone. He was partly dressed and looked as if he were asleep, so natural did he appear.

Manager Plummer, of The Orton, at once wired Mr. Steiner's house and later a message was sent to Miss Steiner. News of his death at the convention at the beach broke up the meeting, for he was known to practically every man present. The convention wired L. Adler & Co., and also Miss Steiner, expressing their grief, for Mr. Steiner was held in high esteem by the jewelers.

Acting Coroner Brimmer decided that death was due to natural causes, probably heart disease, and the body was prepared for burial, and held subject to instructions from New York.

Automatic Machine Arrested.

Just now when the open or shut Sunday is a live topic in Wilmington, it is of interest to note the efforts of a Charlotte "dope" dealer to get around the strict Sunday law in that city. He rigged up an automatic machine for dispensing Coca-Cola. All one had to do was to drop a nickle in the slot, pull a lever and up came a cold bottle of the "dope." An opener was attached, so the thirsty could go right to it. As soon as the chief of police heard of it, he visited the machine, tested it, arrested the dealer and the Recorder taxed him $25 and costs, and he took what Wilmington negroes call a "repeal" to Superior Court.

THE FLESH MAKER

Thin Men and Scrawny Women Can Gain A Pound of Good Solid Flesh Daily.

Money Back in Any Case Where Samose Fails to Increase the Weight.

WEIGH YOURSELF BEFORE USING

Weigh yourself before commencing to use Samose, the great flesh-forming food. The wonderful sale on this preparation since first introduced in Wilmington and the remarkable results following its use have made the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., such enthusiastic believers in the great value of Samose that they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose will not make thin people fat and restore strength and health to those who use it.

This is a strong guarantee, but the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., have seen so many of their customers who a few weeks ago looked like walking skeletons become plump and well, solely through the use of Samose, that they feel they cannot say too much to induce people to try it.

This marvelous flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, makes good, rich blood, tones up the weakened system, helps to assimilate the food and make the user plump, well and rosy.

HOW TO GAIN HEALTHY FLESH

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. Advise Thin Folks to Use Samose.

While thinness may not be a disease, yet it is in reality a condition that needs attention. Under the nourishing power of Samose healthy, natural flesh will soon be attained.

This remarkable flesh-forming food strengthens the system generally and builds up the fleshy tissues so that good, natural plumpness results.

An ounce of flesh is better than a pound of theory. J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. believe that the best possible demonstration of the flesh-forming powers of Samose is to have it tried by their customers, and to induce them to use it, they offer to pay for Samose in case it does not give satisfaction. No stronger proof than this can be given of their faith in it. They have seen hundreds who were weak, thin and scrawny, become plump, robust and strong solely through the use of Samose. Ten days' treatment 50c.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT.

Good healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of proper food, together with the natural action of the organs of assimilation. Nine people out of ten in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Samose, the great flesh-forming food and health restorer. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets and see how your weight increases from week to week. Large boxes for 50c.

Samose does not contain a particle of starch or pepsin, nor is it any nauseating preparation, such as is usually recommended to make people fat and which does not build up good healthy tissue. Samose has valuable flesh-forming properties, tones up and strengthens the whole system, helps the food that is eaten to be assimilated and in a natural manner and absolutely restores health to all the organs.

If you are not perfectly satisfied with the results from Samose, the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. will return your money without any quibbling.

COTTON MARKET LESS ACTIVE

General Fluctuation—Little Attention Paid to Weather Reports—Opening Steady at Unchanged Prices—Close Steady

New York, June 24.—The cotton market was much less active today, prices fluctuating within a range of 4 or 5 points, closing steady, net 1 point lower to 3 points higher. The market opened steady, at unchanged prices to an advance of 2 points and sold about 4 to 7 points net higher during the early trading on covering by recent sellers, and renewed support from local bulls or reactionists, who probably thought that yesterday's break of about 35 points from the best entitled the market to some recovery. There was little notice taken of prevailing weather reports, however, while Liverpool was again a seller here on the advance, and the market soon turned a shade easier under these offerings or scattered realising.

The weekly weather report was considered generally favorable, and beyond a few scattered complaints of spotted conditions in the Eastern belt there was nothing in the crop news to create sentiment on the bull side, but offerings continued light during the afternoon and new crop positions held 2 or 3 points above the closing figures of last night.

July and August seemed relatively easy, with July selling off to 11.99, or about 26 points below the recent high level. Next Friday will be the first July notice day in the local market.

Spot cotton closed quiet. Middling uplands, 12.30; middling gulf, 12.55. Sales, none.

Futures closed steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON MARKET.

New Orleans, June 24.—Cotton was quiet but steady throughout today's session of the market. Favorable crop and weather news had little effect on prices and failed to stimulate much short selling. The opening was steady, at an advance of 1 to 3 points on good cables. The favorable weather map held buying down on the first call. A little later, unfavorable accounts from traveling crop experts in Georgia caused a small buying wave and put prices to a level five points up. Bearish gossip made much of the report of young bolls in Central Mississippi, and of the earliest blooms on record in important counties in Texas. At the highest of the morning prices were 6 to 7 points up. Liquidation checked the advance, and in the afternoon caused the sag the market standing at the lowest, 1 point down to 1 point higher, compared with the closing level of yesterday. Some little buying developed in the last half hour, and the market closed steady at a net gain of 3 to 6 points.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, June 24.—A fair sprinkling of orders was received from the jobbers in the primary cotton goods market and there was a moderate volume of gray goods moved, converters being the principal buyers. Several thousand bales of heavy weight and light weight brown sheetings were sold to China. Retailers were in the market, making inquiries about their Fall silk shipments, which will be delayed greatly on account of labor troubles. Three-quarter unions for men's wear were opened for next Spring, at last season's quotations.

STOCKS MATERIALLY HIGHER

Improvement in the Principal Foreign Markets Has Direct Bearing on Stocks Here—Factors in Recent Depression

New York, June 24.—Improvement in the principal foreign markets was of direct bearing today on movements of stocks here, which carried them to materially higher figures. Since the outbreak of the Balkan war last year, the disturbed state of affairs has been recognized as one of the large factors in the depression of the home market.

While foreign markets still are under strain there was evident today a definite improvement at the principal foreign centers. From London came word that anxiety over the settlement which was thought recently to present a serious menace, had abated.

Following the London settlement comes the half yearly settlement at Berlin. The better feeling in London was expressed in concrete form by the purchase here of 20,000 to 25,000 shares for London account, principally of Steel, Amalgamated, the Harrimans and Canadian Pacific. This buying was one of the chief influences in the early trading in which prices went up quickly.

There was no sustained demand on a large scale, however, and part of the early gains were lost in a mid-session slump, but toward the close bidding increased.

Final prices were the best of the day, with gains running up to 3 points in the case of Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific.

Despite the recent decline in Copper metal, the Copper stocks were conspicuous in the day's rise. An advance in the London metal market prompted covering. The short interest in the Coppers were said to be unusually heavy.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $1,028,000.

U. S. Bonds, unchanged on call.

Total sales were 278,500 shares, including Amalgamated Copper, 28,900; A. C. L., 300; C. and O., 10,200; Lehigh Valley, 3,200; L. and N., 100; N. and W., 300; Reading, 48,300; S. A. STATE JEWELERS IN SESSION more tact, diligence and thought than the jewelry business.

In discussing the question of guarantees he said: "Who are called upon to make guarantees? Neither your doctor, nor your lawyer, nor your preacher, nor your druggist, nor your grocer nor a hundred other kinds of business enterprises furnish guarantees, and yet many jewelers persist in this practice. He is the only merchant in the world that is asked for a guarantee, and this should be changed. Satisfaction should be the greatest guarantee that any jeweler can furnish."

In closing he called attention to the fact that during the year three of the members have died, these being the first to mark the page of brief since the present organization was started eight years ago. During the year the much beloved National president, Steele F. Roberts, has also died. He was indeed a worthy member, he said, and one of the brightest stars that has ever guided the National affairs. He commended the jewelers of Wilmington for their splendid arrangement of entertainment.

Col. Shepard Speaks.

He was followed by Col. John Shepard, of the Keystone Watch Case Company, who made a splendid address, and discussed in a general way a number of questions of particular interest to the jewelers. He declared that it was important to organize, not against law breakers, but against law makers. He deprecated the many laws that are being enacted by our National and State law making bodies, many of which are positively injurious to business.

In his travels over the country he had found that the associations are growing fast, and he hoped that the work would continue. The women are also taking a prominent part in the jewelry business, and this should be so, for it is essentially a woman's business, 90 per cent. of the jewelry trade is by women, and the men who buy jewelry usually buy it for the women.

There is no other business in the world in which confidence plays so prominent a part. When money is deposited in the bank a receipt is always demanded, but it is not so with the jeweler. Valuable diamonds are often left with him and nothing more than his word is asked as a receipt.

Price cutting he severely condemned, saying that in most cases it was a matter of pure ignorance. When a man learns that he cannot continue in business unless he earns a legitimate profit he will be slow to cut prices to the place where he loses money. In many cases the jeweler has no idea as to what his actual expenses are as he fails to count in the overhead expenses.

Must Advertise.

In conclusion he urged the importance of advertising. No business can prosper without legitimate advertising, he said. As an example of this he cited the hen and the duck. When the duck lays she leaves the nest without making any noise; the hen on the other hand as soon as she has laid an egg lets the world know about it. The result is that we eat a thousand hen eggs to every one duck egg.

The Watch Repairer.

Mr. R. W. Muncaster, of Florence, S. C., made a very practical talk on the watch repairer. He first defined what is meant by a watch repairer which, he said, is one who can fix a watch in as good condition as it was when it was new. The old fashioned idea of a watch mender was one who could do any kind of repairing from a muzzle loading gun to the highest priced watch. He was glad to know that this idea has been changed.

One of the problems confronting the jeweler of the present day is securing competent help. He traced the history of the average boy who starts out to learn the business of watch repairing. As soon as he becomes really competent, if he ever does, he usually leaves for larger fields or goes into business for himself. Then there is an ever increasing number of those who never really learn the business with which the jeweler is continually coming into contact.

There have been several solutions to this problem offered, one of which is that the apprentice system be introduced. However, this does not meet with popular approval for there is a clamor in this day for short routes to success, and we are not willing to go through a long process of preparation. He did not think that this was a practical solution to the problem.

He thought that the best method would be to have schools which should be devoted especially to instruction along these lines. These perhaps might be placed under government supervision. At any rate, those who wish to become watch repairers could be required by law to attend these schools for a certain length of time, and then be required to pass an examination in the same way that doctors, lawyers and dentists are now required to do by our State.

At the conclusion of Mr. Muncaster's address the meeting was thrown open for general discussion. Mr. R. C. Bernau called attention to the practice of engraving jewelry without charge, stating that in many cases this caused a heavy loss to the jeweler. Mr. E. F. Miscally discussed a number of matters of interest to the jeweler.

Rev. Fred N. Day, of Winston-Salem, took up the matter of the low prices charged for repairing watches, saying that he did not believe that the present prices were too high for the class of work done. He thought that the quality of the work done should be raised and the prices raised accordingly.

At this juncture a message was received that Mr. Charles Steiner a jewelry salesman for L. Adler & Son, of New York, had died a short while before at The Orton Hotel, in Wilmington, and the meeting adjourned out of respect to his memory.

There was no session last night, but the members were allowed to enjoy themselves in the way that best pleased them. A seven's dance was given at Lumina in their honor.

This morning there will be addresses by Mr. Robert E. Nattan, of the Jewelers' Circular Publishing Company, by Mr. E. F. Miscally of the Allan Jewelry Company, of Charleston, S. C., and by Mr. H. E. Duncan, of the Waltham Watch Company. The afternoon session will be devoted to hearing reports of the committee, election of officers and the selection of the place for the next meeting.

After the adjournment this afternoon the members will be taken for an automobile ride over the city of Wilmington and its suburbs. The automobiles will start from Front and Princess streets, and the members will be brought from the beach in a special car of the Tidewater Power Company.

newly appointed Commissioner of Immigration. The Secretary explained the exigencies of his department, which he thought imperatively required the presence here of the Commissioner. He has written me a letter, stating his recollection of the circumstances. And I herewith enclose it."

San Francisco, June 24.—While important developments were following one another in rapid fire order in Washington today, as the result of a controversy begun when United States District Attorney John L. McNab, of the Northern District of California, telegraphed his resignation to President Wilson on Saturday, the prosecutor himself was driving one more nail in the flag of rebellion which he spiked to the masthead last week.

Mr. McNab resigned because he could not agree to Attorney General McReynold's decree to have the Diggs-Caminetti white slave and certain Western Fuel conspiracy cases continued for a long period. Today he obtained a continuance of three weeks, instead of the longer one his chief had requested, and refused to proceed with the prosecution of those fuel officials not mentioned by Mr. McReynolds, separate from the cases of the two directors the attorney general had asked postponed.

When the cases of John L. Howard, president of the Western Fuel Company, and his fellow officials, under indictment for alleged conspiracy to defraud the customs, were called by Judge Bean in the United States District Court, Mr. McNab said, addressing the court:

"I cannot proceed with these cases. I wish to state the conditions which make it impossible. The attorney general has directed me to withhold from trial the cases of two defendants. In this I am unable to agree with my superior, and therefore I have sent my resignation to the President."

The court then made an order setting the cases over until July 15th.

The cases of Drew Caminetti, son of the new commissioner general of immigration, and Maury I. Diggs, former State architect, indicted for white slavery, were on the calendar for next Thursday, but they were set over until July 15th, upon motion of Mr. McNab.

PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

Entertained by English Sovereign at Elaborate State Banquet

London, June 24.—Raymond Poincare, President of the French Republic, was entertained by the King at a State banquet tonight with as great a display of pomp and magnificence as was ever shown in honor of a royal guest at Buckingham Palace. Early in the morning President Poincare had been greeted at Portsmouth by the Prince of Wales, and later at Victoria Station by the British sovereign.

The French Presidential party proceeded from Portsmouth to London on the royal train and passed through long lines of soldiers and crowded streets lavishly decorated, cheered by thousands.

At the State banquet the famous Windsor Castle service of gold plates were used. The floral decorations were profuse, being so blended as to show the tri-color of France on every hand. Yeomen of the guard in quaint medieval costumes were massed around the spacious chamber, serving as a picturesque background for brilliant uniforms and gorgeous, bejeweled toilettes.

The President of France sat between King George and Queen Mary at the central table, at which were seated also other members of the royal family and the ambassadors. The other guests, numbering about 100, occupied 13 tables.

The King, in proposing President Poincare's health, referred to the cordial relations between France and England as the great factor in the preservation of European peace.

A felicitous response in the same strain was made by the President.

RECORDER'S LEGAL STATUS

Constitutionality of Court at Fayetteville is Questioned.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 24.—The constitutionality of the recently organized Recorder's court here was called in question yesterday when Attorney E. G. Davis made a motion to quash an indictment against John Garvin, a white man, charged with the illicit distilling of whiskey.

Garvin was held guilty by the Recorder on circumstantial evidence and sentenced to six months on the county roads, from which Garvin appealed to the Superior Court and was placed under $500 justified bond.

The motion to quash was based upon the claim that the act creating the Recorder's court was an unconstitutional exercise of legislative authority.

It is contended by a number of citizens that the court was unconstitutionally created inasmuch as the town charter now in force, adopted by a vote of the people, provides only for a city court and that a mere legislative enactment cannot amend this charter.

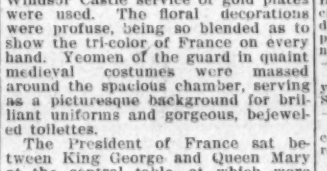
Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.



The old saying—what is home without a mother—should add "Mother's Friend."

In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of this splendid and famous remedy that has aided many a woman through the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lovely disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding and soothes the inflammation of breast glands.

Mother's Friend is an external remedy, acts quickly and not only banishes all distress in advance, but assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother. Thus she becomes a healthy woman with all her strength preserved to thoroughly enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend can be had at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle, and is really one of the greatest blessings ever discovered for expectant mothers. CITIZENS PROTEST.

Against Action of Commissioners in Refusing to Re-Elect Catholic Teachers

Charlotte, N. C., June 24.—At a mass meeting attended by 800 citizens of this city tonight, resolutions were unanimously adopted protesting against the majority action of the Board of City School Commissioners in refusing at their meeting last week to re-elect the two Misses Clifford as teachers in the city schools for no other reason advanced than that they were members of the Roman Catholic church.

Tackle Talk

When you get ready to fish, naturally your mind turns to where you should go to get good Tackle of the Right Kind.

We've got the good Tackle, and furthermore, if you want to "line up" on what to use—why just ask Tomz. Willie Tomz—or Willie, as he is familiarly known by the sporting fraternity, is an encyclopedia on the art of fishing—what to fish with and where to go, and when! Because he knows what he is talking about.

Don't forget to call for Willie. It's a joy for him to show, whether you buy or not!
